IT CAME FROM THE '80S

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the Uptown Music Collective's opening act for the 2023-24 performance season, "It Came From The 80s: New Wave to Pop Rock." We are all very excited to bring you this performance that's all about the energy and style of the 1980s.

Remember when the 1980s brought us the new sounds of synthesizers and drum machines, changing the rhythm of pop music? And who could forget the impact of MTV, turning music videos into a must-have for every hit song? That era gave us more than catchy tunes and flashy videos—it brought innovation and a fresh take on what music could be, influences that still excite us and the next generation of performers.

Our students have been hard at work to recreate the unique vibe and dynamic feel of the 80s hits. They're ready to take you on a trip back to a time when the music was as bold as the fashion.

Leading the charge for this performance are Jossian Lilley, a senior from Loyalsock High School, and Duncan Larson, a Loyalsock alum. They've put their hearts into directing this show, with the invaluable help of the SPG1 Leadership committee, who've been behind the scenes pulling together everything from the sound and lights to the costumes. This performance also features a host of new performers who will be taking the stage for the first time and others who are just entering their performance prime after a year or two in the group. I'm sure all of you will make them feel appreciated.

Your presence means the world to us, and we're excited to share this experience with you. We're confident that the music you'll hear will get you out of your seats and maybe even remind you of some '80s moments you might have forgotten.

Thank you for joining us tonight. Your support is what makes these shows possible, and we can't wait to see you enjoy what we've put together.

Sincerely,

Dave Brumbaugh, Executive Director – Uptown Music Collective

Barron's bases its ratings on qualitative criteria: professionals with a minimum of seven years of financial services experience, acceptable compliance records, formal succession plans, high client retention, and more. Financial Advisors are quantitatively rated based on varying types of revenues and assets advised by the financial professional, with weightings associated for each. Because individual client portfolio performance varies and is typically unaudited, this rating focuses on customer satisfaction and quality of advice. The rating may not be representative of any one client's experience because it reflects a sample of all of the experiences of the Financial Advisor's clients. The rating is not indicative of the Financial Advisor's past or future performance. Barron's is a registered trademark of Dow Jones & Company, L.P. All rights reserved. Forbes Best-in-State Wealth Advisors (January, 2020; February, 2021; April, 2022; April, 2023) and America's Top Women Advisors (February, 2022; February, 2023) rankings were developed by SHOOK Research and is based on in-person, virtual, and telephone due diligence meetings to measure best practices, client retention, industry experience, credentials, review of compliance records, firm nominations; and quantitative criteria, such as: assets under management and revenue generated for their firms. Investment performance is not a criterion because client objectives and risk tolerances vary, and advisors rarely have audited performance reports. SHOOK's research and rankings provide opinions intended to help investors choose the right financial advisor and are not indicative of future performance or representative of any one client's experience.
