RUMOURS & OTHER STORIES

Dear Friends,

Thanks for being here this weekend for our final CAC performance of the 2023-24 season. Tonight's Fleetwood Mac: Rumours and Other Stories performance has been a labor of love for our students, performers, and directors alike. It is amazing that a group of songs released 47 years ago can still excite the emotions of today's young people. Serving as a fantastic tribute to the power of great music, this band and this great album. Which is filled with some of the richest and most passionately emotional music in rock history, making it one of the most iconic albums of all time.

This evening, our talented students from the Special Performance Group 1 will bring to life the legacy of Fleetwood Mac. Their dedication to mastering the album Rumours, alongside other well-known hits and solo works, showcases their technical skills and deep connection to the music that has inspired countless fans across generations.

The band's story—marked by personal and creative tensions—mirrors the dedication and commitment our students have shown in preparing for tonight. They have immersed themselves not just in the music, but in the story behind the music, which is a powerful lesson in the impact of art on life and vice versa.

Tonight's student directors, Stephanie Nappi and Chase Cowden, along with the SPG1 Leadership team, have poured their hearts into this project, guaranteeing that this performance does justice to Fleetwood Mac's legacy. Their creativity and enthusiasm have been key to bringing this project to life, crafting an experience that honors the historical significance and artistic depth of Fleetwood Mac's music, and shines the light on their commitment to excellence which will no doubt bring them success in their future.

I am excited for you to witness the culmination of this SPG1 group's year-long journey and for you to witness that last UMC concert as students for our seniors, as they prepare to move on to the next phase of their lives. When you leave the theater, I hope it is with a renewed appreciation for the transformative power of music, a deep respect for the artists we've celebrated, and a lasting impression of the passion our students bring to their performances.

Thank you for joining us, and enjoy the show!

Warm Regards,

Dave Brumbaugh – Founder and Executive Director
Uptown Music Collective

Barron's bases its ratings on qualitative criteria: professionals with a minimum of seven years of financial services experience, acceptable compliance records, formal succession plans, high client retention, and more. Financial Advisors are quantitatively rated based on varying types of revenues and assets advised by the financial professional, with weightings associated for each. Because individual client portfolio performance varies and is typically unaudited, this rating focuses on customer satisfaction and quality of advice. The rating may not be representative of any one client's experience because it reflects a sample of all of the experiences of the Financial Advisor's clients. The rating is not indicative of the Financial Advisor's past or future performance. Barron's is a registered trademark of Dow Jones & Company, L.P. All rights reserved. Forbes Best-in-State Wealth Advisors (January, 2020; February, 2021; April, 2022; April, 2023) and America's Top Women Advisors (February, 2022; February, 2023) rankings were developed by SHOOK Research and is based on in-person, virtual, and telephone due diligence meetings to measure best practices, client retention, industry experience, credentials, review of compliance records, firm nominations; and quantitative criteria, such as: assets under management and revenue generated for their firms. Investment performance is not a criterion because client objectives and risk tolerances vary, and advisors rarely have audited performance reports. SHOOK's research and rankings provide opinions intended to help investors choose the right financial advisor and are not indicative of future performance or representative of any one client's experience.
